

Dutch Visitor

Albert Bruggencale, 4th class engineer in the Dutch Merchant Marine service was a visitor over the week-end at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Gardner Scott on Lowell street. He has been around the world several times and the last trip was torpedoed and after being adrift for seven days in a life raft he was picked up and landed in Brazil. He is now on a 46-day furlough. After the war he intends to return to Holland where he was born.
